VOL. III. NO. 132.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, JUNE 3, 1897.

DORIAN CAUSES MORE TROUBLE.

Foster Bros.' Dorian, at Ingalls' Park yesterday, repeated his insane act of last Friday. Caywood was on the horse's back. He was at 3 to 1 in the opening betting. There was another sharp play, and at its close the Foster horse was backed down to 6 to 5. He acted nicely going to the post, but when in position to start broke away from Caywood and ran two miles before he could be pulled up. The judges took the same action as before, declared all bets off, excused Dorian and allowed the usual time for a new book.

King's Counsel was the favorite in the second book and he won pulled up, from Sunny.

It rained quite hard before the opening race. The track was a sea of mud in consequence. This, of course, knocked out the calculation of the players, still they were in good form and selected three winning favorites.

A handicap at five furlongs embracing some of the best sprinters at the track, was the racing feature. The betting about the event was keen and comprehensive. The Deuce and Ella Penzance closed equal favorites. They ran one-three, The Deuce beating Lady Callahan rather handily.

Miss Hoy had the call in the two-year-old race, but Presbyterian won it easily. He got away poorly and was interfered with but ran in sparkling style. It was a selling race and the colt was in for $400, but his owner, W. M. Singlerly, had to pay $705 to keep him. Ed Ryan was the runner up.

The first race went to Laius after a hard drive through the stretch, and Warren Point simply walked away from the favorite, Weola, in the final one.
